

Numismatic antiquarianism through correspondence (16th-18th c.)

FINA Conference, 31st of May-1st of June 2017 (Rome, Academia Belgica – Via Omero, 8)

Wednesday May 31st, 2017

9h Welcome of the participants

9h30 Welcome address by Wouter Bracke (director of the Academia Belgica) and François de Callataÿ

Keynote lecture

10h Alain Schnapp, Le rôle de l'antiquaire à l'âge moderne

10h40-11h Coffee break

First session (chair: Bernhard Woytek)

11h Daniela Williams, Collecting forgeries to train the eye: fake coins in 18th century numismatic correspondence.

11h30 Guy Meyer, Sur les différents moyens de reproduire les monnaies (plomb, souffre, etc.).

12h Michiel Verweij, Speaking about manuscripts. Unpublished works in correspondence.

12h30 Johan van Heesch, The Missing Caesar. Inventing coins for Otho.

13h-14h30 Pause

Second session (chair: Martin Mulsow)

14h30 Federica Missere Fontana, Di vizi e di virtù. Di Pertinaci e di Didii, di Pescennii e di Gordiani.

15h John Cunnally, Two Centuries of Collecting, Describing, and Explaining Contorniates.

15h30 Ute Wartenberg, The English tradition of archaeological hoard recording in 17th century England.

15h30-16h Coffee break

16h30 Andrew Burnett, Queen Elizabeth and the Twelve Caesars: a forgotten correspondence.

17h End of the session

Thursday June 1st, 2017

Third session (chair: Andrew Burnett)

- 9h30 Jonathan Kagan, Unpublished numismatic material in the Kagan Collection New York from the Renaissance through the Napoleonic period: manuscripts, letters and drawings.
- 10h Martin Mulsow, Numismatic Antiquarianism: Coins from the Ancient East in Early Modern Europe.
- 10h30-11h Coffee break
- 11h Ursula Kampmann, The network of a collector: the Schellenberg example.
- 11h30 Elena Vaiani, Peiresc and the coins through his correspondence.
- 12h Marco Callegari, About books and coins: the letters of Charles Patin to Giulio Antonio Averoldi between 1679 and 1693.
- 12h30-14h Pause

Fourth session (chair: Ute Wartenberg)

- 14h Maria Cristina Molinari, The story of Francesco Gottifredi's unpublished book through the analysis of the letters of his contemporaries.
- 14h30 Jean Guillemain, La mauvaise réputation de Jean Hardouin à travers les correspondances numismatiques.
- 15h Manuela Mayer, Antiquarianism and the "Republique des médailles": some examples from Göttweig Abbey, Lower Austria (ca 1720-1740).
- 15h30-16h Coffee break
- 16h Bruno Callegher, « ... e non vi vien voglia di venir a veder tante gran cose delle quali son certo che ne resterete pago? ». Fortunato Mandelli (1728-1797) : collections et correspondances numismatiques.
- 16h30 Bernhard Woytek, Publishing the "Doctrina Numorum Veterum": the evidence from Eckhel's correspondence and other contemporary documents.
- 17h End of the session

With the generous support of:

ACADEMIA BELGICA 1830

Koninklijke Bibliotheek van België
Bibliothèque royale de Belgique

UNION
ACADÉMIQUE
INTERNATIONALE

FWF

Der Wissenschaftsfonds.

ÖAW

AUSTRIAN ACADEMY OF SCIENCES

Ng^{SA}

NUMISMATICA GENEVENSIS SA

KÜNKER

