

Online Round Table
'From labrum to lavacrum:
The evolution of Roman bathing habits'
and Book Presentation
'Public Baths and Bathing Habits in Late Antiquity'

Organisation and contact: Sadi Maréchal (Ghent University), sadi.marechal@ugent.be

Friday 30th Octobre 2020

Due to Corona-restrictions, this will be an online event.

Attendance is free using the following Zoom link (ID 982 4092 3883):

<https://zoom.us/j/98240923883?pwd=dVNvcWkrLzdRbVRkNIZ2L2JJbjFpUT09>

Hosted online by the Academia Belgica
Via Omero 8
00197 - Rome (Italy)

BRILL

Programme:

16:30 Welcome by the director of the Academia Belgica
prof. dr. Sabine van Sprang

16:40 Book presentation 'Public Baths and Bathing Habits in Late Antiquity'
(Late Antique Archaeology Supplementary Series 6, Brill), introduced by dr. Francesca Carboni (Newcastle University)

17:00 'Under construction: the Central Baths in Pompeii'
dr. Nathalie de Haan (Radboud University Nijmegen)

17:20 'Acqua sacra, acqua profana. Terme e bagni tra utilità pubblica e valenze simboliche nella tarda antichità'
prof. dr. Francesca Romana Stasolla (Sapienza Università di Roma)

17:40 'Le terme della Villa di Piazza Armerina (Enna) e le terme della domus di Capo Boeo a Lilibeo (Marsala)' prof. em. Patrizio Pensabene (Sapienza Università di Roma) and prof. dr. Paolo Barresi (Università Kore di Enna)

18:00 'Old habits die hard: public baths in Late Antiquity'
dr. Sadi Maréchal (Research Foundation Flanders - Ghent University)

18:20 Discussion

Discounts for the purchase of the book available.

For more titles in the Late Antique Archaeology Supplementary Series, visit:

www.brill.com/laax